BEDROCK ENVIRONMENTAL SEED & SUPPLY JOINS SITEONE LANDSCAPE SUPPLY

November 02, 2026

ROSWELL, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- SiteOne® Landscape Supply, Inc. (NYSE: SITE) announced today that it has completed the acquisition of Bedrock Environmental Seed & Supply, a leading distributor of erosion control, seed, and landscape supplies serving customers throughout 40 states in the U.S.

“This acquisition strengthens our position in the erosion control market with a highly respected organization,” said Doug Black, Chairman and CEO of SiteOne. “Bedrock expands our capabilities in attractive growth markets, creates opportunities to extend our distribution network and enhances our ability to serve customers with a broader portfolio of erosion control solutions. We’re excited to welcome the Bedrock team to SiteOne.”

“Erosion control continues to be an increasingly important component of successful landscape and construction projects,” said Dan Carrothers, Vice President of Agronomic Business Development at SiteOne. “Bedrock's deep product expertise, extensive reach, and customer relationships make them an excellent complement to SiteOne's capabilities. Together, we will be better positioned to provide customers with the products, technical knowledge and service they need to achieve success on their projects.”

“Bedrock was built around a vision to provide customers with exceptional expertise, innovative solutions, hard work, loyal relationships, reliable service and integrity,” said John P. Carson, III, Founder and CEO of Bedrock Environmental. “SiteOne is the best partner to further our shared commitment to customer success and long-term growth. This partnership positions us to accelerate growth, expand our capabilities, deepen relationships and continue investing in our people. We believe this combination will establish a premier erosion control, seed and environmental solutions business that benefits our associates, customers, vendors and the communities we serve for many years to come.”

“Joining SiteOne marks an exciting new chapter for Bedrock, our customers, employees and vendor partners,” said Lacy Graham, President, Bedrock Environmental. “Our team has focused on delivering industry-leading erosion control, seed and environmental solutions while building trusted relationships across the country. We are excited about the opportunities ahead to strengthen our vendor partnerships and continue helping customers successfully deliver projects from planning and installation through long-term maintenance.”

This is the fourth acquisition for SiteOne in 2026 as the company continues to expand the number of markets in which it offers a full range of landscape supplies and services to landscape professionals.
